CAST NOTES

The Fenwickians:

GLORIANA is played by Theresa Racey who appeared in Harvey and Accommodations. She is a graduate of St. Jude High School where she was active in the drama club. Terry is a construction worker!

Marshall Perry plays TULLY BASCOM; theatre goers will remember his recent success in Accommodations. Marshall has a degree in theatre from USC and has appeared professionally with the Flat Rock Playhouse in North Carolina.

COUNT MOUNTJOY is really mild-mannered Dr. Robert E. Lee. He last appeared as the bumbling magician-priest in Don't Drink The Water. "Dr. Bob" is the president of the Sumter Little Theatre Production Board.

Bob Wallick (DAVID BENTER) is no stranger to the Sumter boards. Bob directed the very successful season opener, Hello Dolly, and appeared last on stage in Harvey.

The Americans:

Frank Bush (GENERAL SNIPPET) comes to Sumter Little Theatre from Shaw Stage Company where he has appeared in Calamity Jane and Guys and Dolls. Sumter Little Theatre goers will remember him as Pish-Tush in The Mikado. Frank is a Staff Sergeant in the Air Force.

Reenea Green (MS. BESTON) is a newcomer to the Sumter Little Theatre stage, and we're sure you'll agree she's a welcome addition. Reenea was active in high school and college drama. She graduated from Morris College and works at WSSC Radio.

PROFESSOR KOKINTZ is played by Gretchen Degenhardt. She teaches English and drama at St. Jude High School. Gretchen last appeared in Don't Drink The Water, and she directed Accommodations last year.

Marcy Heath-Poston (JILL SNIPPET) has been involved in theatre in Sumter since 1977. She won a Hammy for her portrayal of the very theatrical Pat in Accommodations.

Sheila Deas (DEBBIE SNIPPET) is a graduate of Winthrop College. She is a newcomer to the Sumter Little Theatre stage. Sheila is employed by Bendix Corporation.

SUMTER LITTLE THEATRE IS A FAMILY AFFAIR!

As you look through your program, you'll see a lot of evidence of this. . . brother and sister, Harry and Liz Little; husbands and wives, Frank and Jackie Bush, Marcy and Ken Poston; mothers and daughters, Pat and Theresa Racey, and Gretchen and Jennifer Degenhardt. This production introduces many newcomers to Sumter Little Theatre, and although they all agree that it took a lot of work to get this show "on the road", they agree with equal vigor that theatre is fun and rewarding. Sumter Little Theatre welcomes you to join us. We are always looking for talented people -- not just for stagework, but for backstage work, too. If you can swing a hammer, stitch a seam, or lift a paintbrush, we urge you to join in the fun. Bring the whole family!

The Sumter Little Theatre is the recipient of a grant from The South Carolina Arts Commission.

Dedicated to all those who have given their lives, time and money in order to preserve peace.
